- Monitor developments at the United Nations on ICC country situations;
- Perform research on ICC and UN matters;
- Provide support to advocacy efforts;
- Undertake special projects and assignments as may arise from time to time.

Qualifications

- Graduate student in law, international relations, or related field;
- Knowledge of the ICC, the UN or peace and security matters in ICC situation countries;
- Excellent written and oral communication, research, organization and writing skills;
- Ability to work independently and within the constraints of tight deadlines;
- Proficiency using Microsoft Office software;
- Previous experience in a nonprofit environment or international organization an advantage;
- Perfect knowledge of English, additional language proficiencies are a plus, especially French;
- Interest in the goals of the CICC.

Remuneration

Unfortunately, internships at the CICC are unpaid. We recommend all prospective candidates to seek financial assistance from their academic institutions or seek outside fellowships, grants and personal resources. The CICC cannot sponsor individuals applying for internships to help them obtain visas.

Application Procedure

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, references and a brief writing sample (3-5 pages maximum) on a related topic. Please include the name of the internship in the subject of the email (if applicable) and in the cover letter. Be sure to indicate your approximate start date as well.
