Sudan: More than 150 dead and use of heavy weapons against civilians

Picture of one of the dead in Banjadeid hospital- Hajyousif

Tariq Sediek , 20 years old protester, was killed today by a bullet on his chest, he passed away instantly at 10:00AM, 26 Septemebr in Ombada. Abdulagadir Rabeia, 29 years and Badr Eldein Ahmed 21 years, died today in Ban Jadeid hospital in Alhaj Yousif both killed by live ammuniton during protests in Hajyousif. The protesters death toll is distributed throughout Khartoum's neighborhoods, in Hajyousif there is at least 50 dead, and another 50 in Omdurman, while Bahry hospital received 7 bodies, more than 40 were killed in Mayo and the areas south of Khartoum state.

Death toll and lack of medical care:

The death toll of Sudanese protesters dramatically increased after the night protests and the resume of the internet services at 2:00PM. The Sudanese Doctors Union, an independent union, announced to the media that there is confirmed 110 deaths in the Khartoum hospitals alone from Wednesday, 25 September, 2013 protests. The increase in the death toll also came in result of the lack of enough medical care for injured peoples, putting in mind that Sudan has no ambulance and emergency health care system that can transfer the injured victims with the international medical protocols that protect the patients' lives. Moreover, there is serious fear among protesters from going to hospitals, in fear from being arrested. According to witnesses the numbers of injured peoples is beyond the hospitals capacities, and there is many injured peoples couldn't have any medical care for hours or even left public hospitals to seek private medical care, which is not available for most of the poor protesters.

Abo Tira forces circling Khartoum Neighborhoods:

In Ombada in Omdurman, Alkalakla in Khartoum and Hajyousif witnesses said that large numbers of Abo Tira forces (the National Reserve Forces) which known for its crimes against civilians in Darfur and Nuba mountains, has been circling this areas with heavy weapons on their top of their armed cars. In Omdurman reports of use of Doshka machine guns against protesters in Wad Nubawi in Omdurman in the night protests on 26 of September 2013.

House to house search and arrests in Khartoum and Omdurman

Activists and witnesses from Alkalakla in Khartoum and Wad Nubawi in Omdurman and other areas, confirmed that the security and police is performing a house to house arrest operation in many Khartoum state areas. The arrests are targeting the protesters and activists, youth and even 16 and 17 years old were detained. According to witnesses hundreds were arrested and the operation still going on until late hour at the night of 26 of September 2013. While news of use of torture against ,hundreds of detainees in the security detention, at least 500 were arrested from Alkalakla in the tow days, and the arrests continues.

Back ground:

Since September 23,2013, Sudanese peoples took the streets protesting the lifting of the oil subsidiary. But the protests from the first minute had demanded the topple of the regime, and the main slogan was (Peoples want to topple the regime). The first protest were in Madani on September, 23, where at least 12 were killed and dozens arrested and the security was using live ammunition from the beginning of the protest. Khartoum, Sennar, Kasala, Kosty, Almanagil, And many other Sudanese joined the protests on September 24th,2013, when hundreds of high school students led the protests in early morning in Althwara in Omdurman. The protest continued at night to reach all over Khartoum neighborhoods, where also live bullets were used to crackdown the protests.

On September 25th, the protests were growing in numbers and more Khartoum neighborhoods joined, especially the slums and IDPs areas such as Mayo, in south of Khartoum, and Hajyousif Altkamul and Umbada Dar Alslam, where the security and police used maximum power against the protesters, who had broken the fear barriers and burned the National Congress Party offices and police stations in many locations in Khartoum. In result the security and the plain clothes elements, who thought to be armed members of the ruling party, had been targeting protesters as most of the injuries are in heads, shoulders and hands, it was also from short distance according to witnesses and relatives of victims.

Bellow is updated names and types of injuries or places of deaths of some protesters of today and the past two days:

Arry organization calls on the Sudanese government to stop the use of maximum force against protesters and respect the rights of the freedom of assembly and expression. We also call on them to immediately investigate the use of live ammunition against civilians protesting in various Sudanese cities in the last few days, during the protests in Nayala, Khartoum and Madani. We also call on the international community to condemn the government violence against the protesters in Sudan and put pressure on the Sudanese government to release detainees and lift impunities from all the officials involved in the violations against protesters.
