9:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m.

Stanford Law School

Lunch will be served

2012 marks the ten-year anniversary of the existence of the International Criminal Court (ICC). This significant milestone provides an opportunity to review and discuss the work of the ICC—its impact, successes and challenges over the past decade—with a view to anticipating what can the Court expect in the next decade, including with regard to ICC-US relations.

To register, please RSVP HERE by May 10, 2012.

Confirmed Speakers Include:

- H.E. Judge Cuno Jakob Tarfusser, Vice President, International Criminal Court
- H.E. Justice Mrs. Silvana Arbia, Registrar, International Criminal Court
- Ms. Shamila Batohi, Senior Legal Advisor of the Prosecutor, International Criminal Court
- H.E. Ambassador Stephen J. Rapp, U.S. Ambassador-at-Large, Office of Global Criminal Justice
- Mr. Benjamin Ferencz, Former Prosecutor, Nuremberg Military Tribunals
- Mr. Michael S. Greco, Chair, ABA Center for Human Rights and former President of the ABA
